Paymaster of Senate Takes Own Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph C. Ellis, paymaster of the U. S. Senate, seriously wounded his wife and shot himself to death yesterday, police reported, after a series of "spats" over the long hours he put in as the lawmakers worked nights to finish their session.
A son, Joseph, 17, said he believed his father had overworked in the long sessions before adjournment.
Detective Sgt. George R. Donahue said the boy said his father had been saying one day to him, "I'm going to shoot you." Donahue said the boy was saying this in a joking manner, but the father took it seriously and shot himself to death yesterday, police reported.
Donahue said Mrs. Ellis and the children, fearing that the 45-year-old Ellis was having a breakdown, had urged him to rest. As financial clerk for the Senate, Ellis handled expenses and payroll for about 2,000 persons.
Ellis and his wife Elizabeth were taken to Emergency Hospital after the shooting in their Northwest side home. Ellis died a half hour later of a head wound. His wife was shot in the face.
Police said the son gave this account.
Hearing a shot, he ran from the kitchen to the first floor and found his father slumped over his bleeding mother, gun in hand.
Young Ellis grappled for the gun but the father pulled away and fired one shot into his own head.
Neighbors said there had been no previous indication of trouble in the family.

For France, Like U. S., It's What She Has to Do—Not Wants to Do

Quoted
Lafayette secretary is one who can keep up with her boss when he is talking and ahead of him when he's not.

The full tragedy of France is being steadily unfolded before the eyes of the Western world—a tragedy which is all the greater because the other democracies must act to help themselves whether Paris goes long or not.

Although France was the one who originally proposed the European Army, she now gives every sign of wincing on it after the other continental nations have agreed to it with the blessing of the United States and Great Britain. The West has been simply swept into the arms of the French government, and the French government is now being swept into the arms of the United States and Great Britain.

Discussion developed the fact that when a property owner refuses to give way condemnation proceedings may be used, as in any other right of eminent domain, for the common good and public funds.

Some senators and part of the public say we ought to cut off all economic and military aid to France. And that's what we're told to do by the Communist press.

Secretary of State Dulles and the new state department are simply to rearm Western Germany and make her a sovereign power in Europe.

France must continue to keep up the fight in Europe's affairs in the interest of international justice and peace, and the United States must continue to support her.

The Germans obviously hold the potential balance of power in Europe, and the United States must be prepared to meet this potential.

This is the real fact that makes the French situation so critical. The French situation is critical because the French situation is critical.

It isn't that France would like to see the United States in a position of weakness. It is that the United States must be prepared to meet this potential.

Westover Air Force Base, Mass. Clarence E. Goff, 51, son of a steel mill accident Tuesday, his family reported he was killed.

Members of the mid-South group of the American Farm Bureau Federation met last week at a more realistic approach to the diversified farm problem is needed.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Business sailed along about as even seasonally from spring to early summer, but the Commerce Department says with a free spending public making up for purchases lightening by the government.

Missouri-Ozan Easements Are Wanted Now

Work will begin on the $337,500 Little Missouri river-Ozan creek channel project as soon as the county judges of the five affected counties have put all property interests in the hands of the federal government, the Corps of Engineers said.

Co-operation of the landowners in making right-of-way available is necessary because of various out-of-date claims on the streams during the clearing of the channels, Col. George Morris of the Corps of Engineers, Vicksburg, Miss., told the conference.

Arkansas Producing 634,000 Turkeys

LITTLE ROCK (AP) The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service announced today that a record crop of 634,000 turkeys is being raised in Arkansas this year.

The previous record was 583,000 turkeys raised in 1951. The number of turkeys being raised this year in Arkansas is 20 per cent higher than the number last year. This compares with a national increase of line per cent over last year.

The crop reporting service said heavy broods made up 63 per cent of the total, and light broods 37 per cent of this year's crop in Arkansas.

Chances Dark for France to Ratify Pact

PARIS (AP) The European army treaty's chances looked dimmer today after today following Premier Pierre Mendes-France's decision to submit the pact to the National Assembly Saturday without government support.

He told reporters last night he would not stake the life of his government by calling for a vote on the treaty's ratification. The crucial decision to reject it as government support was made at a Cabinet meeting which lasted into the last hours.

Even as the ministers met U. S. Secretary of State Dulles and other backers of the proposed European Defense Community expressed hope the French still might squeeze through ratification. The French Cabinet's decision left little basis for such hopes.

West Germany's Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg already have formally approved the agreement to pool their military resources with those of the United States and Great Britain. The location was expected to hinge on the French action.

France's five partners in the scheme meeting with her at a foreign minister's conference last night in Brussels unanimously rejected Mendes-France's proposal to drastically change the project. The alterations would have stripped EDC of much of its central authority.

Some Brazilian Riots Directed at Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) The ranking American admiral in the Pacific command today said he was not about Russian development of an atomic submarine when he said there was no unusual Soviet submarine operations there — "that we can talk about."

The Navy here is not trying to answer any of the provocative questions raised by the remark, made in an interview this week by Adm. Felix D. Stump, Pacific commander in chief. Pentagon officials merely point to the long history of warships made in Washington in recent years about Russia's estimated strength of some 300 to 400 submarines.

Service Has Problem With Medical Slush

WASHINGTON (AP) — The armed forces have a long-standing problem of medical slush on their hands. It concerns medical care for dependents of servicemen.

A Defense Department order cutting the number of doctors in the services from about 4 per 1,000 men on active duty to 3 per 1,000 is making it hard for the Army and Navy to continue its traditional service to the families of soldiers and sailors.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) Millions of persons who never saw a race course first hand in their lives experienced a feeling of personal loss at the news from Saratoga that the great gray horse Native Dancer had run his last race because of a recurring sore foot and would be retired to the stud next spring.

Those same millions who were privileged to watch the first television race of the season, the 22nd annual stakes race, were disappointed to learn that the great gray horse would not be seen in the 22nd annual stakes race.

The Hope boys were 5 runs behind going into the bottom of the fifth but scored 4 in the fifth, 1 in the sixth and 1 in the seventh and last to go ahead.

Yanks Gain a Full Game on Indians

By Ben Phelgar

Associated Press Sports Writer

Devoted the major of the game to the Indians.

The Indians, who were the old St. Louis Browns.

The plan of the change paid off at the box office.

The ball field except the uniforms and a few of the faces.

It will take a 50-50 break in their remaining 30 games for the Indians to finish with as good a record as the Browns.

They lost their 13th straight game last night 10-2 to the New York Yankees.

Yankees, who gained a full game on first-place Cleveland.

They scored 10 runs in a surprise win by the Yankees.

Polish Athletics and now hold a 4 1/2 game edge over the Indians.

Jimmy Dykes, who became manager of the Orioles because of his position on the new owners.

He didn't think the club was better than a tenth place outfit at best.

"We may be in last place," he said, "but we're nobody's push-over."

Over if we had just one decent first division team. Just one more place.

"It seems like twice that many," said Dykes.

The Indians, however, it wasn't close after the Yankees took a 3-1 lead in the fourth.

Yogi Berra, however, scored in the fifth and New York coasted to its second straight win.

Johnnie Pate, a rookie who had won only one game checked Cleveland on four hits and the Indians scored 10 runs.

He also collected four hits for three runs.

Irrigation Bill's

Terms Should Be Known

Quoted

"Marty," said her mother repro-gally, "every time you're naughty, get another slice of bread."

"Get Mom, you must have been a terror when you were young —

just look at Grandma."

Your editor found at the Little

Missouri-Ozark creek meeting. In Prescott Wednesday morning that interest in irrigation is re-born among landowners today.

A third consecutive year of drought has, of course, given emphasis to the matter; but some readers were kind enough to tell this column scored a forceful point the other day in observing that our section had shifted away from cotton which doesn't require much moisture, to a farm economy which needs more water — without doing very much to provide that water.

My reference naturally isn't to individual farmers. Individual farmers can't do much about creating irrigation facilities. But organized groups of what districts they can do a great deal

— and Arkansas should have busied itself with this state-wide project years ago.

And now we have a golden chance to get busy. Some of the landowners I were discussing with Senator Oren Harris at Wednesday's meeting in Prescott, Ark.,

said that the new farm-irrigation bill sponsored by Senators Fulbright, Eastland and others which has just been passed into law by President Eisenhower.

As you may recall, this amendment is available to all the 46 states in the West, and makes it possible for the federal government to buy land for irrigation projects in groups or water districts they can borrow a great deal more — up to $250,000.

Congressman Harris told me that procedural details aren't available as yet, but they will be in a few weeks.

Here's what some of us discussed,

then:

What will not be a general meeting of landowners as soon as we obtain an outline of the irrigation-loan procedure and determine what is feasible in Hempstead county, who wants to go along, and for how much?

Financial figures don't frighten the average man where water is concerned because, (1) water does with land like ham and eggs, and

(2) long-term loans are traditional with federal irrigation projects.

You know the financial side of irrigation is practical or the states

west of Texas never would have been able to build or operate out-of a housing district.

We in Arkansas have vastly more to start with than the boys out West

— more money than they started with, and more potential surface water reserves than probably the entire Far West combined.

Whether we are in a temporary

"dry weather" cycle or not is hard to say. Under normal conditions our section has a dry summer every second or third year — and the kind of agriculture we have shifted from cotton to grain, to normally expect from rainfall, to get an average of about 50 inches

a year, and still have a serious water problem. The surface water reserve potential — but the rainfall is badly spaced, coming in the winter and spring mostly, with too little in the crucial growing season.

It's time we faced up to this state-wide problem, and a good start would be an information meeting in our own county.

Nehru's Hostility
Toward U. S.
Is Criticized

By EUGENE LEVIN

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The

leader of India's 80 million inhabitants criticized Prime Minister Nehru in Parliament today for his insistence that coexistence with the Communists is necessary and for his "hostility" toward the United States.

B. R. Ambedkar, Nehru's law minister until he broke with the Prime Minister three years ago, and spoke up in a foreign policy debate which Nehru had launched with a call for the world to accept the "only alternative" to a world war.

This principle, said the leader of India's lower caste, had been adopted without thought by the former Cabinet members.

I was disgusted by America, he asserted, is one reason Nehru is against the U. S.-Soviet 30th Anniversary celebration, adding that the Prime Minister also feared Russia's rejection of the United Nations

"keynote of our foreign policy is to solve the problems of other countries, but not our own.

Earlier in the debate, Nehru found himself in the United States of defending the United States

when he told Communist questioners that the United States was not sending or will send arms to the Portuguese Indian settlements India wants to take over.

He's what some of us discussed,

Gen. Lee Takes Over Clark Field

By WILLIAM W. HUGHES

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — A number of department heads and commissioners in the administration of former Gov. Sid McMath are expected to reconvene today in the administration of Gov.

Orval E. Faubus.

Faubus himself held a job in the McMath administration. Many of his former staff members were on hand to help him win

the recent Democratic primary against Gov. Francis

Cherry.

Heading the list of possible returnees are such former officials as Herman Lindsey, W. F.

Ball, Mrs. Henry Ball, Bryan

Storck, C. Howard Gladden, and Jim Crenshaw.

Lindsey probably will be offered his old job as state police chief. He said today he would "make up my mind within a few days."

Lindsey's acceptance of the job is not certain. He is not a member of the new government, and he is not a
